Ohio Justice and Policy Center Plaintiff ,) Case No:
)) Judge:
vs.) Magistrate Judge:
Annette Chambers Smith, et al. Defendants .)))
	DECLARATION OF CHLOE KILGUSS
)

I, Chloe Kilguss, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1746, declare under penalty of perjury as follows:

- 1. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated herein.
- 2. I am currently employed as a Legal Administrative Assistant at Plaintiff OJPC.
- 3. One of my job duties is to monitor voicemails received by OJPC at the number 513-421-1108.
- 4. On December 10, 2024, I received a voicemail from Oscar Smith at Marion Correctional Institution reading aloud from a piece of confidential legal mail OJPC had sent to a client at MCI.
- 5. The voicemail stated in part, "the confidential legal mail control numbers are to be used only for legal mail. This newsletter you guys sent out: 'the holiday season reminds us of the importance of hope.' Those letters could have been sent via regular mail."
- 6. The letter in question was a confidential communication intended for our incarcerated clients, and was duly marked as confidential legal mail and had a control number affixed to the envelope.
- 7. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on: 3/3/2025
